

Obituary

Died: Saturday, March 9, 2019

Joyce Anne Adye Pallischeck, passed away on March 9, 2019 at her home in Wapello with her family. She fought a courageous battle of MSA Parkinson. Joyce was born on August 21, 1942 in Louisa County to Frank Ross and Cornelia (Sheafor) Adye.

There will be no visitation or funeral. The Dudgeon-McCulley Funeral Home is providing the care and arrangements for her family.

Joyce grew up in Wapello and graduated from Wapello Community School, SCC at Burlington, and Iowa Wesleyan College with a degree in Social Work, Sociology, and Psychology.

She married Mark Michael Pallischeck on November 8, 1975. She had one daughter, Jo Belle.

Joyce worked at Sylvania, Thatcher Plastic Packaging, Hwy 61 Shell where she co-managed with her husband for two years; also worked at Odessa Residential and Community Services as a case manager. She owned Keepsakes Emporium Gift Shop in Wapello.

She was a member of the VFW Auxiliary in Wapello for 30 years, was a Girl Scout Leader and 4-H Leader. She enjoyed reading, crocheting, going to stock races, baking, collecting cookbooks, cardinals, and Betty Boop memorabilia.

She is survived by her husband, Mike and daughter, Jo Belle. Those that preceded her in death are 3 brothers, Frank Myrle, Danny Roscoe, and Gerry Gene; her parents, Frank & Cornelia; 3 nephews; 3 nieces; and a sister-in-law. She will be missed greatly by her pets.

Service Summary

- Service details not available -