

Obituary

Died: Thursday, May 30, 2019

Ramon Wayne Craft, age 81, formerly of Florida, died Thursday evening, May 30, 2019, at his daughter's home in Grandview. The son of Arthur and Opal Bowles Craft, he was born on September 1, 1937 in Hedrick. Ramon married Helen Petersen.

He graduated from Mediapolis High School and from Parson College in Fairfield with a B.S. Degree in Chemistry. He worked in maintenance as a marine mechanic and primarily as a carpenter in the Louisa County area. Ramon enjoyed traveling, camping, and the outdoors in general and loved learning and new adventures.

His family includes two daughters, Nadine Craft of LaGrande, Oregon and Janene Bartenhagen of Grandview; two granddaughters, Toni Papika and Niki Bartenhagen; and two great grandchildren, Aiden King and Mae Papika. He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Roger.

No funeral services are planned. Cremation has been fulfilled with the care of Dudgeon-McCulley Funeral Home in Wapello.

Service Summary

- Service details not available -